- Health
- Environmental adaptations
- Laws and regulations (i.e. The Americans with Disabilities Act prevents businesses, including childcare centers and homes, from discrimination on the basis of disability)

For more information call Kelly Tolbert, Early Learning Specialist for Provider Support at (850)982-4275 or contact us via email at tolbert@elcsantarosa.org

Florida Statute 402.3018 mandates the provision of a toll-free number to provide assistance and consultation specifically to childcare personnel regarding the inclusion of children with disabilities and special health care needs. This number is known as the Warm Line. The toll free local Warm Line is available to any early care and education provider requesting information relating to the disability and special healthcare needs of children.
